

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

An eye for eye only ends up making the whole world blind.

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was an Indian lawyer, anti-colonial nationalist, and political ethicist, who employed nonviolent resistance to lead the successful campaign for India's independence from British Rule, and in turn inspire movements for civil rights and freedom across the world.

Here's a time line of Mahatma Gandhi:

- October 2, 1869 - Birth of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi
- 1883 - Gandhi and Kasturbai are married.
- 1885 - Death of Karamchand Gandhi, Gandhi's father
- July 18, 1914 - Gandhi sails to England.
- August 1914 - Gandhi arrives in England, just at the outbreak of World War I(1914-1918).
- January 9, 1915 - Gandhi returns home to India, and receives a hero's welcome. 1909 - Gandhi travels to London, pushing for rights of South African Indians. The Transvaal registration law is repealed.
- August 8, 1942 - The Indian National Congress rejects the Cripps proposal, and declares it will grant its support for the British war effort only in return for independence.

- August 1942 - Congress leaders are arrested; Gandhi is imprisoned in the Aga Khan's palace.
